SUBJECT:

Hannaford Street Bible Church Fall Conference is a Benefit to Northwest Christians and Pastors

TEXT:

Coming this September 25-27, the 9th Annual Fall Conference at Hannaford Street Bible Church in Helena offers a vital opportunity to hear nationally known presenters speak on the important issues facing Christians and churches in the Northwest states such as Montana, Idaho, and the Dakotas.

GENERAL SESSIONS

The general sessions are open to everyone! They start Sunday morning, September 25 at 8:30am or 10:45am. The general sessions continue at 6:30pm on Monday & Tuesday, September 26 and 27. This year's featured speaker is Leith Anderson, the Senior Pastor of Wooddale Church in Eden Prairie, Minnesota. Leith is also well known from the daily radio program "Faith Matters" which is heard in cities across America and overseas. Also speaking in the general sessions will be Dr. Charles Ware, President of Crossroads Bible College and Senior Pastor of Crossroads Bible Church. In addition to worship led by the Hannaford Street Bible Church Praise Team, award winning author and innovative storyteller Steven James will also be sharing his unique blend of drama and comedy

PASTORS' WORKSHOPS

Additionally, pastors and ministry leaders are encouraged to attend the morning and afternoon sessions which are designed especially for them – This portion is especially known as the Hannaford Street Pastors' Conference. The conference provides a time for church leaders to step back, take a breath, and get together with other experienced leaders and teachers to discuss practical ministry challenges and theological issues, as well as how these two realities come together.

The pastors' workshops this year will include such topics as "Creative Ways to Reach Your Community," "Technology and Bible Study," "Things Pastors Need to Know Today," and a special pastors' wives workshop entitled "How I Learned to Love the Ministry." The goal is to encourage and enable one another, while providing a valuable resource in facing difficult ministry issues specific to churches and leaders in the Northwest.

COST & REGISTRATION

There is no cost for the conference although church leaders planning on attending the pastors' workshops are encouraged to register online. For more information or to register, visit www.hannaford.org or call Hannaford Street Bible Church at 406-449-2273.
